

Sensational Sixth Grade Selections

2019 - 2020

By: RASIKA

Sensational Sixth Grade Selections

Tiger

By Elijah Ahearn, 6th Grade

Thick orange fur
Sleek black stripes
Sharp white teeth
Big sharp claws
And king of the jungle

Ice Cream

Yousif Al Saadi, Grade 6

Ice cream
It tastes good
Drips like a volcano
It's like Heaven in a cone
M M yum

Winter

By Ashley Angeles-Bonilla, Grade 6

Winter
Freezing cold air
Playing in snow all day Cold snow that i like to play with freezing

Rose

Andrea Arias, 6th grade

Roses might be red and my favorite color beautiful bright red.

Water

Levi Bishop, Grade 6

Drip, Drip, Drip
Goes the water as it slowly falls out of the faucet Filling the sink.

Weather

Mikey Bolt, Grade 6

I hear the splashing of the puddles
As the grey clouds loom over head.

I hear the buzzing of the bees as the Sun shines down on my face.

I see the grey fog outside my window
The most boring color.

Sloppy Joe

James Butcher, Grade 6

When you take a bite
The sandwich likes to Spit out its insides
And make a mess all
Over your table.
Your dogs comes running
Over to help you clean up
Until one of the dogs
Slip on the mess
Bang!

Friends

Mary Caceres, Grade 6

Friends are people who stand up for you
They pick you up when you fall down
Friends laugh and joke with you
We go through pain and sorrow together
We feel pride and joy together
Friends are family and a part of u

Sensational Sixth Grade Selections

Clothes

Alison Campbell, Grade 6

I have an addiction
I can't stop buying clothes

No matter what I do
From my head to my toes

I have too many clothes that pretty soon my closet is going to explode

Some people think I'm crazy
But I think that I'm sane

I just hope that one day I Find someone who feels the same.

Snowflake

Natalie Coello, Grade 6

The snow is falling from the sky

Turning everything into a winter wonderland

I try to catch a snowflake

I catch one

But all that is left

ICE CREAM

Dev Dover, Grade 6

Ice Cream
Creamy and tasty
As it finds its way into my Belly.

Rainy Days

Ian Cooper, Grade 6

It's pouring rain

There's not much to do

You grab your rain boots

Walk outside

Go down the steps

Splat!

You already got soaked

Popcorn

Cody Fairbank, Grade 6

Greasy goodness
Just like french fries
Layered with fake amazing butter
But I don't care! I just like the Food

Microwaved popcorn is bad
The ones from the movies
Is the best! And that's why
I live in the movies!

Grow.

Elara Howard, Grade 6.

Grow little sapling,
So you can be very muscular and tall. For you will live for a million years!
Until you collapse, but for now

Stand

Tall

Tall

Tall.

Sensational Sixth Grade Selections

Books

Yesenia Iglesias, Grade 6

A book is like a dictionary you
Can find new words and it tells you
What it means.

Angel

Andrea Martin, Grade 6

Angel
Lucky white wings
We can't always see you but You're above pouring out love in Heaven

Cool At School

Noah Matthews, Grade 6

My name is Noah and I'm here to say
I'm here to work I'm not here to play
I'd like to work at school all day
But 8 hours is all I'm gonna stay

Rain

Nicolas Mejia, Grade 6

Makes days muddy
Makes people gloomy

Makes big clouds
That no one likes

Tigers

Lily Johnston, Grade 6

I'm orange

And those two colors swirl together

To make many stripes and make my pelt beautiful

I hunt

I kill
And then feed it to my cubs

I'm scary

But shy

I'm a Tiger Living with my family in Asia.

Pizza

By: Corinne Mcmeekin, Grade 6

I was sitting in the city,
The sky was very pretty.

Than I see a pizza in the street, and I wanted something good to eat.

So I marched right over with a smile on my face,

I am so ready to eat at the pizza place.

The pepperoni was dancing on the pizza,
And that's a rap. See ya!

Sensational Sixth Grade Selections

A Good Day

By Alexander Nealy, 6th Grade

The night leaves our sight,
And morning rises
Another beautiful day
Full of surprises.
This time I'll be happy,
This time I have awakened
Because until the day ends
You never know if it was wasted.

Raindrop

Amy Ryan, Grade 6

Drip, Drop
Falling
Down to
The ground

Go the raindrops
With no sound
Drip, drop

Splish
Splash
Go the tiny rain droplets
Like tiny
Cloud
tears

When
The Rain Falls the Earth starts
To smile
Drip
Drop

On This Bright Beach Day

Audrey O'Beirne, Grade 6

Splash, Splash
The bright beautiful blue waves crash
Into and over each other
On this bright beach day

Shhh, Shhh
The sand whispers in the wind
Tiny orange specks of grain litter the bay
On this bright beach day

Blah, Blah
The sun is casting light
Umbrellas with stripes cover the world like a shield
People are screaming and eating
On this bright beach day

Summer

Bianca Parada, Grade 6

Summer
Is the best
And really fun
You can go to the pool
And have a
Fun time

Best Friend

Camila Portillo-Lavayen, Grade
6

I have a best friend
Who cannot be replaced
He's always there to help me
And to give me a hand
I may not live a day without him
I have a best friend
And he is my brother.

Sensational Sixth Grade Selections

Dream

Gable Powell, Grade 6

Lost in a forest nowhere to go, the cold breeze is following you. You decide to spend the night and try to find your way home in the morning. You wake up in somebody's house, it looks just like yours. You see your parents cooking breakfast. It was all a dream. Or was it ?

SUMMER DAY

By: Benjamin Purvis, Grade 6

On this very hot summer day it feels like Halloween because my mom drowned me in sunscreen.

Pets

Soham Raghavaraju, Grade 6

Always love your pets
They will love you forever
I'm sure you will too.

Trees

Lillian Reindel, Grade 6

Dancing in the wind,
Leaves are always rustling,
Trunks are very long.

Coloring Book

Trae Robinson-Beck, 6th Grade

Once we buy them
We use it
Then we stop
And it sits somewhere
Forever
And ever
After the Colored pencils
Give it life.

Snowflakes

Sophie Smurda, 6th grade

Snowflakes are all so different
Some big, some small.
Snowflakes are like people From far away they all look the same.
But when you get up close
They're special in their own way

Sensational Sixth Grade Selections

Markers

SamanthaTristan, Grade 6

Markers

So colorful
I like to draw with them
Markers make everything better messy

Basketball

Harley Woodring-Rico, Grade 6

Dribble, dribble,
Down the court
Line it up.....
He shoots
He scores!!

Math

By Gigi Crespin, Grade 6

Math is fun and cool you learn new, amazing things in math, I succeed

Jolly Ranchers

By.Jasmin Alvarez Arias

I often wonder.....
Why are Jolly Ranchers are sweet
They don't fit with me!!!

The Sun

By Victor Mejia-Carrion, Sixth Grade

It looks at the kids having fun outside. Happy to make half of the world light up making the kids happy and tired and making it last for a while.Later the sun has to go away. Now the sun has to go to the other side of earth and lets the moon take over.

Dogs

By:Allison Menjivar-Sibrian

Brave,furry
Playing,barking,eating
Only one animal I love
Valentina

Sensational Sixth Grade Selections

Pat and Larry

Maja Daniel 6th grade

Once there existed a mouse
All day he wanted to rouse,
His friend who was a rat
Who was the female Pat.

His own name was Larry,
And he was a fairy,
Pat the rat meanwhile Considered herself senile.

For Pat was 900 years old,
Or, well, so had she been told.
She said with age
You should lock yourself in a cage.

So Pat did as she thought
And then she thought naught,
And fell down asleep and made not a peep.

Larry wanted to awaken,
And then with her eat bacon.
For Larry the fairy
(Pat thought he was hairy)

But he was a mouse,
A mouse in a house,
And yet he loved bacon
And without it felt shaken

But yet he did not wake her
Even though he could in a blur,
For he had been taught,
To awaken not

A rat by the name of cat,
For a rat is a rat
But he was not paying attention,
For twas not a mention

Of Pat.

Sad to Happy Soccer Ball

By: Hamad Khattak, 6th grade

Oh, soccer ball
I feel so bad
because you are always sad
But then I get confused and you too because when we kick you get mad
But one day you got used
And infused with air and you were so happy
You were so popular

Rainy Days

Ian Cooper, Grade 6

It's pouring rain
There's not much to do
You grab your rain boots
Walk outside
Go down the steps
Splat!
You already got soaked

Sailing

By: Sydney Morris, 6th grade
, The boat rocks, side to side and side to side
The waters calm, the suns bright
The bay is deep- full of fish that are just right
We ride through the water
Like a bird through the air
The flag on the boat turns and bend
We reach the shore-our ride has come to an end.

Sensational Sixth Grade Selections

Get Back Up

By: Cesar Delcid

Get back up
don't lack the strength
get back up
just get on your feet.
Focus or else you'll be defeated
No one will help you when you get beat
Just get back up
Don't fake it, just take it
Get back up
Just gain the pain
Don't leave a red stain
Just. Get. Back. Up.

Covid 19

By Lexi Dunn, 6th grade

Covid is not anyone's friend
Oh how i miss my friends
Viruses are changing the world
I don't want to get close to anyone
Distance so you don't get sick!
1 more second of this, and I'm going to go crazy.
9 years, I feel like I have been in quarantine!

The Book

By Lucy Rosst, 6th grade

The book unfurls its covers

Into a warm embrace

I dive right in

The words a welcoming friend

After a long day

So We Try Something New

By Lexi Dunn, 6th grade

This year is strange,
We are not at school,
And there is so much change,
We all try to act cool,
But deep down inside,
We all want to cry
But try to keep our pride,
So we try,
Something new.

Sky

By Gaurang Patel, 6th grade

The sky is blue like blueberries blooming,
Clouds in the sky like plain cotton candy,
Sun in the sky like a giant orange in the sky,
Birds flying in the sky like kites gliding in the sky,
Stars in the sky like a golden signature.

Sensational Sixth Grade Selections

Dancing Pigs

By Anjali Daga, 6th grade

Sometimes pigs go for a dance

And if you don't believe me, it's true

Tonight's the big party, so maybe take a glance

And what you see may surprise you

The pigs will dance and dance all night

Don't try asking me how

But as soon as one pig is thrown up high and soars like a kite

The pigs know the party's really getting started now

The next second all pigs are in the air

They're flying every which way

They just fly with little care

All night into the next day
Some people say pigs can't fly

But let me be the first to say they do

Because I have seen them touch the sky

And I also know they dance too

Sensational Sixth Grade Selections

Tick Tock, Tick Tock

Laura Wickramaratne, 6th grade

Tick tock tick tock

The world around me is spinning

The television is a busy haze in front of me

The couch is no longer in its glory days

The room seems darker than it did two day ago

Sirens break the silence

Dots flash before my eyes

If only the world would start spinning again

BOOM!

Lockdown

A free-verse poem by Sophia Sheth

I'm trapped inside my house, wandering the halls,
What will I do within these walls?!
I gaze out the window; past the gloomy skies,
Through the barren lake, all liveliness dies.

Through the winding trail I go for a run,
The clouds weigh me down; no sun and no fun.
I roam the town going around and around.
No light, nobody and no sound.

I'm sitting here in quarantine,
I'm not sure what to do.
Completed all my assignments; my choice board options, too!
Working at my desk I realize,
My eyes are always fixed on the screen.
Weeks have gone by for the curve to rise,
Where has my mind and schedule been?

Hopefully we'll flatten the curve,
The nurses and doctors are there to serve.
Toilet paper you shall lend,
Hopefully lockdown will soon end.

Sensational Sixth Grade Selections

The Entire Night Long

A figurative language poem by Kai Cleverly, 6th grade

He eats like a pig
“chomp chomp” as he eats away
“Chomp chomp, chomp chomp, chomp”

He is a night owl
Eating the entire night long
The bill cost an arm and a leg

My Emotions

By Patrick Smith, 6th grade

Sometimes I am happy
Sometimes I am mad
Sometimes I’m completely clueless
Sometimes I am sad

I have no control over these feelings
It is just a part of life
Just try to control it
Because sometimes you can’t stop the emotions

Bare Bear

By Hamad Khattak, 6th grade

There once was a bear from a lair

He had a ton of hair

His hair all fell off

When he started to cough

And now he was a bare bear.

Cats

By Suriyah Womack, 6th grade

Cats are fat and nice
They really hate dogs and mice
They hate to eat rice
Wondering
By Kaleb Dougerty, 6th grade

Tigers got to hunt
Birds got to fly
Man got to sit and wonder
WHY WHY WHY
Tigers got to sleep
Birds got to land
Man got to tell himself that he understands

Sensational Sixth Grade Selections

American Revolution

By Jerry Harrison, 6th grade

It's April 1775
The Lobersterbacks are coming tonight
They want to keep their land
And not let the Patriots in They'll do anything to deny
BOOM BOOM the muskets go off
The Lobersterbacks are trying to show off BOOM BOOM the muskets go off and their leader's head pops off

Splat

By Devin Quinteras

There was a cat named Splat
He was very fat
He spent his days chasing rats
I loved that fat cat named Splat

Treasure

By Deven Shanta, 6th grade

There once was a lady from Kazerry
Who was in quite a hurry
She had to run away
She didn't have all day
For she had a treasure she needed to bury

Fried Chicken

By Leo Lara, 6th grade

There once was a chicken from Kentucky

He liked to dance very funky

He fell and he died

He was battered and fried

He was now the best chicken in Kentucky

Green Bird

By Noah Jacks, 6th grade

I am a green bird
I am the smallest green bird
Can I be tall please?

Words

By Suriyah Womack, 6th grade

"Sticks
And
Stones
Can
Break
My Bones
But
Words
Can Do
That Too."

Sensational Sixth Grade Selections

Antarctica

By Tony Villavicencio, 6th grade

There once was a person from Antarctica
Who left and moved to America
He scared the others outside
By stealing all the food by the roadside Jumped onto a plane to leave back to Antarctica

Pandas

By Gabe Fang-Weeden, 6th grade

Pandas
Fluffy and Squishy
Loveable and Very Smart
I Love Them Pandas

Ballon

By Kamrann Chaudhry, 6th grade

Balloon, Balloon
You fly so high
But when you
Hit a plane
You sure might die

Ball

By Kazzi Byas, 6th grade

There once was a ball from the mall
That had to hit the wall
It left the town
And bounced around
Now it's nowhere to be found.

Changing of the Guard

By Fahim Chowdhury

Changing of the guard
In their twice a day of meeting
"Hello" "goodbye"
With a nod of the head
Ones off to work
Ones off to bed

Dragon

By Charlotte Ober, 6th grade

There once was a dragon from Maine
He was very tamed
He liked to wear socks
And eat pop rocks
"I'm a strong dragon" he claimed.

Sensational Sixth Grade Selections

Frog

By Arrianna Parmei, 6th grade

There once was a frog from a log
He hopped around all day long
He met a girl frog Sue
They had a kid named Drew
They got married in the fog.

Chicken

By Chloe Cooper, Sixth Grade

There once was a chicken from Spain
The chicken cried and had stomach pain
He became depressed
He was such a hot mess
So he finally hired some maids

Playtime

By Navide Abinyeh, 6th grade

Time to finish some food
Let's go outside to get friends
Now I'm gonna go

Dogs

By Valerie Lavayen-Lazo

They're cute and tiny
They like to play every day
Until they get tired

Corona Virus

By Anastasia Hayes, 6th grade ever since the corona has been here to stay, we wish the pandemic could just go away!

distant learning, quarantine too, people on airplanes, get the clue!
stay in your homes or else we won't make it past the day...